International Surface Fabricators Association Announces New Board of Directors
Steve Mast, of Precision Countertops, To Serve as President of the Board

The International Surface Fabricators Association (ISFA) announced the results of its election for the association's 2021 Board of Directors. Fabricator Member Directors are chosen by association members for a term of three years, with the option to renew for a second consecutive three-year term. Associate Member Directors are elected by association members for a term of two years, with the option to renew for a second consecutive two-year term.

Board officers are elected by members of the full board of directors.

Steve Mast of Precision Countertops in Wilsonville, Ore., was elected by the full board to serve as ISFA President. The position of Immediate Past President will remain open for 2021, with Augie Chavez of GECKO Solid Surface Solutions in San Antonio, Texas, having served two consecutive terms as president before fulfilling his service on the board and stepping down.

Joe Duszka, of Carolina Custom Surfaces in Greensboro, N.C. will serve as Vice President; Mike Langenderfer, of The Countertop Shop in Monclova, Ohio, will serve as Treasurer; and, rounding out the Executive Committee, Austin Maxwell, of Maxwell Countertops in Farmer City, Ill., will continue to hold the position of Secretary.

In addition to Augie Chavez, leaving the board having fulfilled her service is Kelley Montana, of Humbolt Countertops in Eureka, Calif, having served six years, including most recently as Secretary.

Returning to the board, after having served previously more than 5 years ago is Ted Sherritt, of FLOFORM, based in Saskatoon, SK, Canada. New to the board is Kimberley Homs, of Great in Counters in Providence, R.I. Both of them will serve as Directors moving forward into 2021.

“We are so thankful for the great work Augie and Kelley put in on the board,” said ISFA President Steve Mast. “They have left behind great legacies and we will miss them and their insight. However, we are confident that the new board members also bring great perspectives, knowledge and enthusiasm to the association.”

Retaining their positions as Directors are Paul “Max” Le Pera, of Global Surfacing Alliance in Cranbury, N.J.; Eric Tryon, founding member of Rockheads Group of Alpharetta, Ga., Laura Grandlienard, of ROCKin’teriors in Raleigh, N.C.; and Rodrigo Valezquez, of INDEKO in Zapopan, Mexico. Also continuing their positions as Associate Member Representatives on the board are Jim Callaghan, of GranQuartz in Norcross, Ga., and Joe Connolly of SASSO USA in Palatine, Ill.
